

The background of the entire poster is a collage of photographs of teenagers. The top half features three photos: on the left, three girls are smiling and looking towards the right; in the center, a girl is giving a thumbs up; on the right, a boy and a girl are standing outdoors, possibly on a sports field. The bottom half of the poster is dominated by a large group photo of about 15 teenagers, both boys and girls, posing together and smiling. The entire image has a warm, orange-yellow color overlay.
